WHAT IS A BEREAN?

He has a protruding jaw...

a stubborn streak and knows what he wants, but he is polite about it, and will get what he wants.

He knows he is as good as the student in "high class" schools, but he does not know how to prove it.

He came out of high school ignorant and in trying to make up, he doesn't know where to stop.

He is a Negro who was told he is as good as anybody, but no better; still he wishes times were easier and humiliations fewer.

a fighter ...

but he likes to be forced into fighting, instead of forcing.

He is independent, but he wants to be gregarious; he knows he will never be, but thinks maybe his children will.

He is a chronic griper, but he expects nothing to come of his griping. He sits in smoky restaurants talking jive talk and protesting rules, but he is secretly glad of rules.

He is often emotional,

but he conceals it . . .

He hates to see a woman run a man,

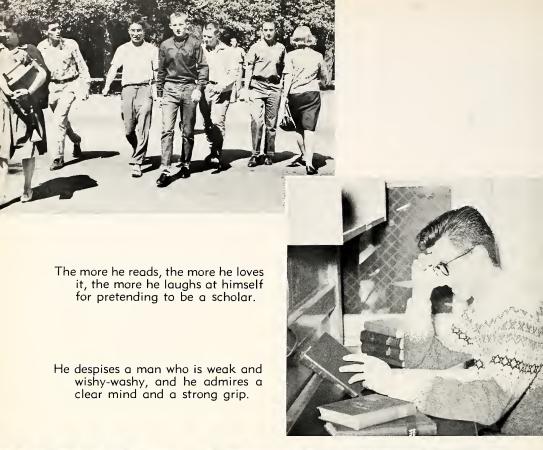

but he admits that a woman may someday run him.

He believes that an honest day's work is good for his body and his soul.

He believes in working and preparing for a good life . . . but a lucky break is welcome, though to count on it is foolish.

He has a reverence for the hills, but he wants to get away from them.

His faith is in the stars, and he cannot call any star by name.

Berea College is his dog which he whips severely and regularly, and he invites you to join him; after a few years he forgets having struck any blows, and he considers College man's best friend; then expects you to join him.

-Billy Edd Wheeler

Dean Louis Smith

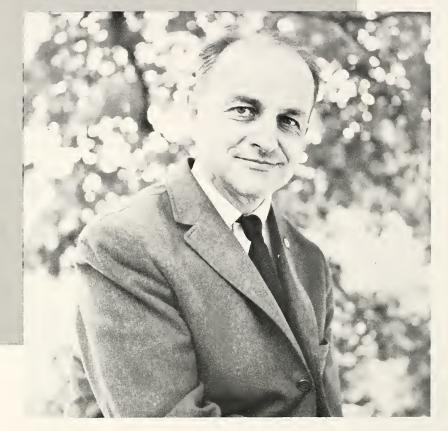

Dedication

Administrator . . . and friend . . .

The College Dean . . . A Scholar . . . An Author . . . An International Traveler and Friendmaker . . . A Man . . . and it is to DEAN LOUIS SMITH the MAN that the 1963 CHIMES is dedicated . . . A man never too engrossed in his administrative duties to . . . walk in the rain with . . . laugh with . . . talk with . . . work with . . . the Berea Students.

Dr. Roscoe Griffin

Original and stimulating thinker . . . creative and tireless worker for peace . . . a man who lived and taught the full meaning of Berea's motto, "God hath made of one blood all nations of men." Rusty Giffin discouraged apathy and inertia. He encouraged commitment and action. The things for which he stood cannot be lost; they belong to Berea.

The Student Association

President John Beoll

President John Beall believes that participation in Student Government is an experience without equal. Through discussion, planning, and working with other students, we gain insights into ourselves and the world around us. We learn the principles of representative government and gain an understanding of the responsibilities of democratic life.

We as students must recognize our right to govern ourselves responsibly and we must accept that responsibility of government. If we are to accept the leadership of the free world, we must learn the principles of responsible leadership now.

Dedication

"There is a certain blend of courage, integrity, character and principle which has no satisfactory dictionary name . . ."

-L. Adamic

We, the seniors, have come in contact with many teachers throughout our four years. The one to whom we owe the most is Mrs. Gunkler. Although this was her first year as our class sponsor, she has encouraged us both as a class and as individuals during our entire high school career. As we leave Foundation and strive for our separate goals, we will always have memories of Mrs. Gunkler which will serve as an inspiration for us. In deepest gratitude, we the Class of 1963 humbly dedicate this Chimes to Mrs. O. H. Gunkler.

-The Staff

"Oh 'tis jesting, dancing, drinking Spins the heavy warld around. If young hearts were not so clever, Oh they would be young forever. Think no mare; 'tis only thinking Lays lads underground.

-A. E. Houseman

"Dane with Injustice of the open road."

Strong and content I travel the open road."

—W. Whitman "Dane with indoor complaints, libraries,

"For men may came and men may ga, But I go on forever."

-A. L. Tennyson

"He never says a faolish thing, Nor ever daes a wise ane." -R. Ragers

"There is a great ability in knowing how to conceal ane's ability."

-Français, Duc de la Rachefaucauld

"These are the times that try men's souls." -T. Paine

"You must not know too much, or be too precise or scientific about birds and trees and flawers and watercraft; a certain free margin and even vagueness— perhaps ignorance, cre-dulity—helps your enjoyment of these things." -W. Whitman

"She is laughing in her sleeve at you." -Maliere

"When we are young We lang to tread a way none trod before."

-W. B. Yeats

"A little learning is a dangerous thing.

-A. Pape

"For fools rush in where ongels feor to tread." -A. Pope

"So happy the moron, -Anon.

"Youth is wholly experimental."

—R. L. Stevenson

"It is not only fine feathers that make fine birds."

"Girl Scouts together, happy are we . . ."
—Scout Song

"'Tis the voice of the sluggard; I heard him complain, 'You have wak'd me too soon, I must slumber again'.

"Through totter'd clothes small vices do appear

"The world is good, and the people are good, And we're all good fellows together." —J. O'Keeffe

"The more the merrier." -J. Heywood

"Mightier far Than strength of nerve and sinew, or the sway Of magic patent over sun and star . . .

"Oh Captain! my Captain! our fearful trip is done! . . ."

"Imparadis'd in one another's arms."

—J. Milton

"On with the dance! let joy be unconfined;
No sleep till morn, when Youth and Pleasure meet
To chase the glawing hours with flying feet."

—L. Byron

EDITORIAL

On behalf of the Staff, I want to thank Dean Kenneth Thompson for patiently sponsoring us again this year and Mr. Bob Walter of S. B. Newman Printing Company for doing what we consider to be a good job of directing us and printing our materials. Also, a great big THANK YOU goes to all you truly big-hearted fellow Bereans who, not being on the official CHIMES Staff and realizing that you would receive no personal recognition for your aid to us, several times pitched in to help us take care of the wolf-of-a-deadline at our door—often, a deadline the Staff might never have met without your help.

And now—let me change my position and speak not for but to the '63 CHIMES Staff. I congratulate you on your work and the attitude in which you did it. You worked steadily and, for the most part, cheerfully late, late hours when you had nothing to lose but your whole point standings. True—to some of our viewers, the '63 CHIMES may seem somewhat less than professionally done, and true, there were those times when we all, after thinking we had at last done something perfectly, found that we truly had—perfectly backwards. But, frankly, I think you have produced a good yearbook for your fellow students, and the manner in which you have done it makes me proud to inform you that not only have you produced creditably "The Bereo Story of 1963," but you yourselves have also been a good part of it.
